(d) Unit of price quotation: 1 metric ton. The price shall be exclusive of taxes.

289. Basis of the contract:—Groundnut expeller oilcake (slice variety) fair average quality of the season, free from admixture of other oilcakes and any other seeds or foreign matter, having

(a) oil and albuminoids combined not less than 52%,

(b) sand and/or silica not more than $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.

(c) free from castorseed and/or castor husk,

(d) fibre contents not more than 14%.

shall be the basis of the contract.

(2) Allowance:—Oil and albuminoids combined:—

(a) 52% pass.

(A) Discount for tenders below basis:—

(a) For deficiency up to 3 per cent, a proportionate allowance at the rate of 1 per cent of the delivery order price per each of the first three units or any fraction thereof shall be payable by the seller to the buyer.

(b) For deficiency of fourth and fifth units or part thereof an additional proportionate allowance at the rate of 2 per cent of the delivery order price shall be payable by the seller to the buyer.

(c) For deficiency of over 5 per cent (i.e. below 47 per cent O.A. combined) the buyer shall have the option to reject the goods or accept them at an additional proportionate allowance at the rate of 3 per cent for deficiency of each 1 per cent or fraction thereof below 47 per cent payable by the seller to the buyer.

(B) Premia for tenders above basis:—

(a) Above 52 per cent but upto 54 per cent the seller will be entitled to a proportionate premium of 1 per cent of the delivery order price per each unit or fraction thereof.

(b) above 54 per cent the seller shall not be entitled to any additional premium.

(3) Sand and/or silica:—

(a) Upto $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent pass.

(b) For excess over $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent upto 5 per cent, a proportionate allowance at the rate of 1 per cent of the delivery order price for each unit of excess or any fraction thereof shall be payable by the seller to the buyer.

(c) For excess over 5 per cent the buyer shall have the option to reject or accept the goods at an additional proportionate allowance at the rate of 2 per cent of the delivery order price for each unit of excess over 5 per cent or for any fraction thereof from the seller.

(4) Castorseed and/or castor husk:—

should the cake contain castor-seed and/or castor husk, the goods shall be taken at an allowance to the buyer by the seller at the following rates:—

$\frac{3}{4}$ per cent of the delivery order price if not exceeding 0.001 per cent, 1 per cent of the delivery order price if not exceeding 0.002 per cent, $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of the delivery order price if not exceeding 0.005 per cent.

For excess over 0.005 per cent the buyer shall have the option to reject or accept the goods at an additional proportionate allowance from the seller at the rate of 1 per cent for every additional unit of 0.001, in excess of 0.005 subject to a total maximum allowance of 10 per cent including $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent for upto 0.005 per cent of the delivery order price.

(5) Fibre contents:—

(a) Upto 14 per cent pass.

(b) Above 14 per cent the goods shall be taken at an allowance to the buyer by the seller at the following rates:—

$\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of the delivery order price for each additional unit of excess or fraction thereof upto 16 per cent.

1 per cent of the delivery order price for each additional unit or fraction thereof above 16 per cent.

290. Hedge trading in groundnut oilcake in any delivery shall commence two months in advance of the delivery month. The Board shall fix (with the previous concurrence of the Forward Markets Commission) the dates from which hedge trading will commence for each new contract. In case the Board decides to permit hedge trading in a period otherwise than what is provided herein, the Board shall do so with the concurrence of the Forward Markets Commission.

291. The transactions for hedge contract shall be for delivery from the sellers's godown within the municipal limits of Adoni. The buyer shall pay the weighing and filling charges and take away the goods from the seller's premises at his own expense.

Tenders and Delivery Orders

292. Provisions of bylaws 61(a), (c), 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68 and 69 shall apply to tenders issued against hedge contracts for groundnut oilcake.

293. Sellers shall have the option of issuing delivery orders from 7th to 25th of the delivery month. Such delivery orders may be issued on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays falling between these dates and also on the 7th and 25th even if these dates fall on any other day. The last date for issuing delivery orders in the month of February shall be 24th. The Board shall have the power to alter the tender days from time to time.

294. If the buyer fails to supply empty gunnies within the prescribed period, the seller shall notify the buyer and make an application to the Exchange on the next day. The buyer shall pay to the seller penalty of one rupee per ton per day of default.

295. If the seller fails to give delivery within 8 days of the receipt of the gunnies, the buyer shall notify the seller and make an application to the Exchange on the next day. The seller shall pay to the buyer a penalty of one rupee per ton per day of default. If the seller does not give delivery within 15 days from the receipt of the gunnies from the buyer or if the buyer does not take delivery within 15 days of the delivery of the gunnies the contracts shall be settled at the closing rate on the next working day. A penalty of Rs. 10/- per ton shall also be paid by the seller or the buyer as the case may be in addition to the penalty for the waiting period.

296. The buyer shall take delivery of the goods within 24 hours of the seller asking the buyer to take delivery. If the buyer fails to do so, the seller shall notify the buyer and make an application to the Exchange. The buyer shall be liable to pay to the seller a penalty of one rupee per ton per day of default.

297. If the seller does not issue delivery orders for the fulfilment of his outstanding transactions during the prescribed period in the delivery month, such transactions shall be settled at the Due Date Rate fixed by the Board on the last working day of the month plus a penalty of Rs. 5/- per ton.

298. If the seller issues a delivery order for the fulfilment of hedge contracts but does not effect delivery by the due date the transactions shall be settled at Due Date Rate. In addition the seller shall pay to the buyer a penalty of Rs. 10/- per ton.

Clearings

299. For the purpose of periodical settlements of hedge contracts, settlement rates shall be fixed by the Clearing House Committee at the time of the closing of the market on the last working day of the month.

300. The Clearing House Committee shall have the power to fix special clearings in addition to the clearing specified in bylaw 299 when the rates for oilcake fluctuate by Rs. 15/- or more per tonne above or below the immediately preceding settlement rates, or if there has been no settlement in the contract concerned then above or below the rate at which the first transaction took place in that contract. The special clearing shall be fixed only if the fluctuation lasts for 24 hours.

301. All hedge contracts shall be subject to periodical settlements through the clearing house and in every case parties to the contracts must be members of the Exchange.

302. The procedure for the submission of statements, vouchers, balance sheets etc., in respect of periodical settlements for groundnut oilcake shall be as laid down in the Clearing Bylaws of the Exchange.

Samples

303. Samples representing goods delivery against each tender issued against hedge contracts for groundnut oilcake shall be taken and analysed in the laboratory of the Exchange for the purpose of determining the quality of the goods tendered.

304. Samples shall be drawn in the seller's premises before the goods have left these premises.

305. Samples shall be drawn by the buyer from 8 bags selected from each lot of 3, 4 bags. Out of these 8 bags 4 bags shall be kept in a vertical position and the other 4 in a horizontal position. From each bag a sample of 1 kilogram shall be drawn and the samples from all 8 bags mixed by both the buyer and the seller. The sample shall then be equally filled in three tins in the presence of both the buyer and the seller or of their representatives. Both parties shall then affix their respective seals to the tins.

Analysis

306. One tin out of the three tins sealed under bylaw 305 may be sent to the laboratory of the Exchange for analysis. Both the buyer and the seller shall keep one tin each from the remaining two tins.

307. On receipt of the analysis report from the Exchange, either the buyer or the seller may send the sample for reanalysis to Itlab or Hughes & Davies, Bombay. The report received thereafter shall be final and binding.

308. When the buyer or the seller wishes to send the sample for reanalysis to Bombay he shall inform the other party of his intention to do so within 48 hours of the receipt of the analysis report from the Exchange.

309. When the sample is sent to Bombay for reanalysis, the buyer or the seller as the case may be, shall send the tin which is with him as per bylaw 306. The tin sent for reanalysis shall have the seals, affixed under bylaw 305, intact.

310. The analysis fee and other incidental charges, if any, shall be borne by the buyer if the analysis report does not show any allowances to be paid by the sellers. If the analysis report shows that an allowance is to be paid by the sellers, the analysing fee and the incidental charges, if any, shall be borne by the seller.

311. When the buyer or the seller wishes to send the sample for reanalysis to Bombay, he shall remit the necessary charges to the Exchange and he shall also send the sample to the Exchange for forwarding to Bombay.

312. If the analysis report entitles the buyer to reject the goods as per the bylaws, the buyer may, if he so desires, ask the seller to replace the goods or demand all the allowances due to him.

313. In case the goods are replaced under bylaw 312 and the analysis report in respect of the replaced goods shows that the goods are again liable to rejection, the buyer may again reject the goods or claim all the allowances to which he is entitled under the bylaws. In case he rejects the goods, the transaction shall be settled at the closing rate on the day following the day of receipt of the analysis report or at the Due Date Rate whichever is earlier. In addition the seller shall pay to the buyer a penalty at the rate of Rs. 10/- per ton.

Payments

314. The buyer shall pay to the seller against delivery of oilcake 90 per cent of the value of the goods and the balance shall be paid immediately after the questions of quality, allowances etc., are settled according to the bylaws.

315. In case the seller has not taken an advance of 90 per cent from the buyer he shall have one option to replace the goods if the analysis report renders him liable to the payment of a large allowance. This replacement shall be done within three days of the receipt of the analysis report. If the seller fails to replace the goods within the allotted time, the tender will be considered as a false tender.

316. In case the seller has taken an advance of 90 per cent from the buyer the buyer shall have the option to permit the seller to replace the goods or to demand the full allowance.

Upcountry Delivery

317. The upcountry centres at which delivery of groundnut oilcake against hedge contracts is permitted will be as per schedule appended to these bylaws. The Board shall, however, be at liberty, in consultation with the Forward Markets Commission, to make such changes in the schedule as they think proper.

318. In the case of delivery at upcountry centres the seller shall pay to the buyer expenses from the godown to the railway station on Adoni basis and railway freight from the centre of delivery to Adoni.

319. The sales tax chargeable on oilcake delivered at any upcountry centre shall be as per the sales tax law of the state wherein the centre of delivery is situated but this shall in no case exceed the rate of sales tax prevailing in Andhra Pradesh at the time of delivery.

320. The delivery in the upcountry centres shall be at the sellers' godown.

321. The buyer shall take delivery of the goods within 40 days of the date of the receipt of the delivery order.

322. The provisions of bylaws 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 207, 210, 211 and 212 shall apply in case of upcountry delivery of groundnut oilcake in so far as they are not repugnant to any of these additional bylaws.

Regulation and Control

323. The power of regulating and deciding all matters concerning the oilcake trade shall be vested in the Board of Directors. The Board shall have the power to appoint an Oilcake Sub-Committee to advise the Board on all or any matters relating to oilcake and to discharge such other functions as may be entrusted to it by the Board from time to time.

Schedule of Upcountry Centres for delivery of groundnut oilcake against hedge contracts

1. Kurnool.
2. Bellary.
3. Nandyal.
4. Proddatur.
5. Gulbarga.
6. Yadgiri.
